

Community Engagement Manager

Fostering Family Ministries (FFM) is seeking a Community Engagement professional to join our team in the mission field of foster care! In this position you will be responsible for communicating with stakeholders, churches, volunteers, and families prior to and following events; plan and coordinate events, lead teams of volunteers and assist in creating and managing marketing material for FFM in various forms including physical materials, website, and social media posts. To succeed in this role, you will need great organizational skills, people management skills, and the ability to communicate well. This job supports a ministry that is reaching local communities for Jesus through supporting and caring for those in the foster care system. Using communications strategies and engaging events, your work will support our coalition of churches in bringing hope and healing to children and families in foster care in every community.

Responsibilities:

- Manage FFM messaging for events & campaigns from planning to completion with FFM team support
- Fill occasional speaking opportunities to represent FFM at churches & events
- Execute and manage regional events with the FFM team, making recommendations on activities, outreach, speakers, and other strategic elements to serve foster/kinship families & church partners (utilizing tools ie. Asana for planning)
- Ensure that the aesthetics and environment are high quality and represent FFM while serving families, children in foster care, and volunteers well
- Assist with follow up with potential or current stakeholders (churches, foster families, community partners)
- Proactively work with FFM team to create assets for marketing, training, and events, including digital, print, and website which are compelling and engaging while clearly presenting FFM's vision, strategy, and resources.
- Assist in creating ongoing content for church partners (ie: sermon prompts, short entry blog posts, talking points)
- Oversee community management of social channels (FB, IG & LI)
- Represent FFM and serve in other ways as needed

Qualifications:

- Commitment to Christ evident in personal life, family & ministry. Daily walk with God is an example to others.
- In agreement with FFM Core Beliefs* and a desire to serve in ministry
- Project management & organizational skills, able to manage multiple priorities while meeting deadlines
- Ability to translate complexity into simple and intuitive communications
- Comfortable with ambiguity and ability to self-direct and be resourceful
- Strategic thinking, able to connect events with the big picture, as well as the specific goals for each event
- Strong written and oral communications skills
- Experience with event logistics and coordination, creative problem solving, solutions-oriented attitude
- Skilled with MS Office Suite, Canva, Facebook, Instagram, able to learn software (ie. InDesign & Asana).
- Bachelor's Degree in Communications, Marketing, Public Relations, or related field, preferred. Open to other Degrees and Associates Degree with commensurate experience & skills. Experience in ministry, community relations, event management, writing, speaking, and designing communication materials are all valuable assets

Full time salary position with benefits. Flexible hybrid workplace (remote & onsite in North Central Ohio). FFM currently operates a virtual office and is onsite with churches and community partners across north central Ohio.
