Hope Family Camp is a trauma-informed, attachment-focused camp experience designed for families with children who have experienced foster care, adoption, or early adversity. Grounded in Trust-Based Relational Intervention® (TBRI®), this camp equips caregivers and children with practical tools to strengthen connection, regulation, and emotional healing — all in a fun, supportive environment.

What to Expect

- Interactive learning for parents
- Play-based, skill-building activities for children
- Guided family connection experiences
- Trauma-informed support from trained TBRI® professionals
- A safe, joyful space for growth and healing

Why Hope Family Camp?

Children heal best in safe, connected relationships. TBRI® Family Camp focuses on understanding behavior, building trust, and creating lasting connection.
